COAST CLIPPINGS.

The Touche's Institute is in session in Virginia.

Marshall Williams, agent for Wells, Fargo & Co., at Tombstone, has de-camped.

Two carloads of seed wheat have been shipped from Stockton to Sherman, Texas.

On the 8th Dennis Kearney organized another Workingman's party in San Francisco.

A fire in Gold Hill on Friday night, burned the houses of George E. Smith and Mrs. McNally.

Charles Oscar, a Swedish sailor boy, was drowned in the Bay at San Francisco on the 6th.

H. M. Brown, the highwayman who murdered a deputy Sheriff of Sonoma county last year, has been sentenced to death.

The Chronicle says H. W. Read has left the Comstock to go as a missionary in Arizona, Texas, and Old and New Mexico.

The Elko Independent says work upon the Salmon Mill at Rock Creek has been resumed in accordance with orders from the Bank.

The water mills along the canyons around Virginia have had a rough time of it this winter. Their wheels have been frozen up more than half the time.

The Bulletin says Dr. Ward, of New York, has arrived in San Francisco with twelve carloads of the stout fossils in existence. They will be put on exhibition.

The surveyors of the narrow gauge and the other roads outward from Oakland are now in the vicinity of Knight's Ferry, Stanislaus county. They are heading for Bodie.

The Silver State calls on the citizens to dispose of the question of developing its resources. It says cheap fuel is one requisite. Cedar wood and asphalt at $10 a cord are too high.

Work on the Mission street wharf will soon be commenced. It is proposed to remove entirely the old wharf, which is more than a quarter of a century old, and erect a new one, eighty feet wide and six hundred feet long.

Governor Perkins, of California, has offered a reward of three hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers of Nicholas Broyles, who was killed near Camp-tonville, Yuba county, on or about November 22, 1881.

Indian District, at Benton, has iron ore 93 per cent. peroxide of iron, and 7 silicon. This is the best ore ever found. The veins are 30 and 70 feet wide and 3,000 feet long. They are two and one-half miles from the line of the proposed railroad from Benton to Owens lake.

The Enterprise says the dog of the late Tom Carson travels back and forth between the places frequented by Tom, and will allow no one to touch or handle him, showing fight whenever he is prevented from going where he desires to go in search of his former master.

Motors, Ill., July 14, 1881.

H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y.

DEAR SIR: Your remedy, the Kidney and Liver Cure, has been used by both my wife and myself. She used it on general principles, as a system and liver regulator. I took the medicine for a long-standing liver trouble, which has been the source of much inconvenience, and which failed to yield to the doctor's remedy. As my wife, after using your Kidney and Liver Cure, is now in a state of perfect health, and is able to perform all her duties, I feel it my duty to state to the public that your medicine is a safe and reliable remedy.

Yours truly,

H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y.

DEAR SIR: For several years I have been afflicted with a severe case of Kidney and Liver trouble. I have used many remedies, but have not been able to get well. I have used your Kidney and Liver Cure, and after taking it for a few days, I feel that I am getting well. I feel it my duty to state to the public that your medicine is a safe and reliable remedy.

Yours truly,

NOT SO BLACK AS THEY ARE PAINTED.

Frank Pixley writes to the Argonaut: A more close observation of the Legislative bodies, and a more intimate acquaintance with public men, have impressed me that there is a higher standard of integrity, a better general purpose, and more patriotic motives governing at Washington than the general public has been led to believe. I think no one can sit through sessions after sessions in either House without being favorably impressed with the earnest and honest efforts of the great majority of our public men. I observe a disposition toward economy, a watchfulness of the public interest, and a general desire for the public welfare that place our Congress in a favorable comparison with the Legislative and governing bodies of any other nation. The financial condition of the country is the best evidence that Senators and Representatives are not unmindful of their duties, and are intelligently and honestly performing them. There is a disposition on the part of the press and the people to criticize and suspect our public men, and to assume that they are not as unselfish and patriotic as they ought to be. Party feeling runs too high, and it is undoubtedly true that party interests do often outweigh the public good. The very nearly equal division of parties, which now exists, has a tendency to keep both in the line of duty.

WHEN THAT START NEW PAPERS.

The editor of a new paper at Gatesville, Texas, was impressed by the immense importance of his work when he wrote in his salutatory the following: "We enter upon the functions of journalism with an imperious consciousness of a personal commitment to the high moral responsibilities incident to a position recognized by intelligence and morality as a representative of formative entity, molding and vitalizing the intelligent constituency who perpetuates by prerogative its existence. The Texas was equaled by the editor in Elkhart, Indiana, who stated in his salutatory his object was to "restore to the republic its wonted grandeur and prosperity." His paper did not live long, but hundreds of such men are constantly starting papers in Texas and Indiana, and some other States.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The evergreen used to decorate churches and halls become very dangerous in a few months' time. They get thoroughly dried, and as they are full of pitch they are nearly as dangerous as an open keg of rifle powder. A match or the breath of a lamp would start them, and the fire would run around the room like a flash of lightning.

Young men talk of trusting to the spur of the occasion. That trust is vain. Occasions cannot make spurs. If you expect to wear spurs you must win them. If you wish to use them you must buckle them to your heels before you go into the fight—James A. Garfield.

The Eureka Leader promises that Eureka county will send sober, honest and capable men to represent the county in the next Legislature. How many lobbyists they propose to send to herd the delegation and work up thieving measures, the Leader says not.

New Jersey has again given other States an example of the way to treat criminals. Baldwin, the man who recently robbed the Newark Bank of all its funds, has been sentenced to 15 years imprisonment.

Wheeler, the slinger, complains that he is inundated with bouquets from lady admirers. This practice not only affects Wheeler, but it makes sensible people outside sick also.

The Examiner has a cut of a plan for its monument offered the Garfield Monument Committee.

Carrying the War Into Africa.

NEW YORK, February 13.

Olaus Spreckles, the California sugar refiner, is now at the Windsor Hotel. Besides being the principal owner in the great San Francisco sugar refinery, the capital of which is $14,000,000, Spreckles is engaged in putting a new refinery in San Francisco, which will cost $2,000,000. Twenty-seven thousand acres of land, under cultivation in the Hawaiian Islands, pour their production of raw sugar, free of duty, into the San Francisco market. Spreckles has been able to undersell all other refiners, but some merchants out West have begun to buy some sugar from Eastern refineries and it is understood that Spreckles refused to sell any more to them. The Eastern refiners then commenced an organized attack upon Spreckles and his business interest through the San Francisco Chronicle, hence Mr. Spreckles' trip east, which, it is stated, is for the purpose of fighting the Eastern refiners on their own ground. In order to do this successfully it is said that he intends to purchase the Brooklyn sugar refinery and to expend $100,000 in enlarging and improving it, or else he will build a new refinery which will surpass in size anything in the country. By his patents and other advantages it is claimed that Mr. Spreckles can produce refined sugar at a rate which will enable him to sell at a profit and for less money than it costs Eastern refiners to manufacture the same article.

A Naughty Boy.

St. Louis, February 13.

Edward M. Kirtland, son of the senior member of the firm of Kirtland, Humphreys & Co., prominent cotton factors, and a clerk in the house, was arrested at the Union depot at 9 o'clock last night just as he was stepping aboard the Missouri Pacific west bound train. He was charged with signing the firm's name to a check for $3,500 and collected that sum from the St. Louis National Bank yesterday, and all the circumstances in the case point to his guilt. When arrested he was accompanied by a frail woman named Kate Williams. Both were taken to the police headquarters and searched. Twenty-nine hundred dollars and Kirtland's gold watch and two Helcats for Albuquerque, New Mexico, were found on the woman, which she said were given her by Kirtland. The woman also had a new dress and other articles of apparel which she said she purchased with money given her by Kirtland. Kirtland is 28 years old, has a wife and two children, and has moved in the best society. Both parties are still in confinement, and it is asserted young Kirtland's father will let the law take its course. The affair, owing to the high standing of Kirtland, has caused great excitement.

A Big Oil Fire.

Buffalo, Pa., February 13.

A spark from a locomotive on the Buffalo, N. Y. & Philadelphia R. R. fired some little oil pools near Olean, New York, and the fire soon spread to three iron tanks containing 105,000 barrels of oil, which is now in flames. All assistance possible has been summoned from the oil regions. An embargo is to be formed to secure the burning oil when the tanks overflow, which will be about two or three o'clock. The oil will be drawn off as rapidly as possible by perforating the tanks with cannon balls. The night is as bright as day for miles around.

Death of A. D. Billings.

New York, February 13.

A. D. Billings, the well-known actor, died this morning from an overdose of laudanum. His last professional appearance in New York was made on the stage of the Union Square Theater, where he played the part of "Squire" in "The Lights of London." Billings suffered a severe loss a short time ago in the death of his wife, and there is an impression that he may have swallowed the poison with suicidal intent.

Myriads of Deaths.

Chicago, February 13.

D. M. Osborne, the recent employer of Luke Ransom, who was found dead with a bullet hole in his head, Friday evening, near his residence, during an interview exonerated Ransom from all the charges of dishonesty lately made, and thinks it a case of suicide, brought about by speculation. The people of Hinsdale are divided in opinion on the subject, but Ransom's friends say positively it was murder.

His Brother Killed Him.

Washington, February 13.

The bullet which killed Seldo weighed 87 grains. The bullet which wounded Barton weighed within one-half a grain of the same, and evidently came from the same pistol. It is regarded as certain that A. C. Seldo shot his brother when firing at Barton.

Not Going to Fight.

New York, February 13.

At the office of the Brooklyn sugar refinery, 98 Wall street, yesterday, it was learned that the firm are all friends of Mr. Spreckles. When he went to San Francisco years ago they sent him materials when he was starting in business. One of the members of the firm stated that Mr. Spreckles called to see them a number of times since he had arrived in the city, but they had considered his visits as almost entirely social. He had, however, spoken of his intention of starting a sugar refinery in the East. He had not made a bid for the Brooklyn refinery, but some of his remarks might be construed as indicating that he would buy the refinery if he could obtain it at a reasonable figure. The idea that Mr. Spreckles intends war against Eastern refiners was not avowed by him during his visits to the office. A prominent sugar refiner said yesterday that Mr. Spreckles could not undertake to undersell eastern refiners with any likelihood of success. The various large sugar refineries in New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Boston, and elsewhere, were backed by an aggregate capital of over $75,000,000, and should easily fight him on his own ground. Moreover, the statement that Mr. Spreckles has machinery and appliances for making sugar at less cost than Eastern refiners is ridiculous, when it is considered that the plan of the new refinery which he is putting up in San Francisco is an exact adoption of the method employed by the Brooklyn sugar refinery.

A Genius Gone.

New York, February 13.

The funeral of Henry Tucker, the musical composer and writer of popular songs, took place yesterday from the residence of his family in Brooklyn. His death was caused by brain affection, from which he had been suffering for years. He leaves a wife and three daughters. Tucker was born December 13, 1826, in Kingston, Canada West, where his parents had removed from Connecticut. He composed music for "When this cruel war is over," "Dear mother, I've come home to die," "Sweet Genevieve," and many others equally as popular.

Trescott Formally Received by the Chilean Government.

WASHINGTON, February 13.

Secretary Blaine's letter of instructions to Trescott, dated November 30, 1881, is published. On January 14th Trescott was formally received by the Chilean Government. His remarks in presenting his credentials were exceedingly conciliatory, stating on the part of the President of the United States that the misunderstanding was unfortunate, and only required clear explanation to be satisfactorily cleared up. The Chilean President cordially replied to Trescott, giving him every assurance of the kindly intention on the part of his Government toward the United States.

Appropriate Names.

New York, February 13.

Speaking of the proposed new State the Tribune says: Lincoln and Garfield, the two martyred Presidents, would have been decidedly better names for the two new States into which Dakota will be divided; but the old name has a commercial value in the wheat markets of the world, and neither section of the territory has been willing to give it up.

Fitz John Porter.

Cambridge, February 13.

A Washington special says General Fitz John Porter, on Friday, had an interview with the President and explained the Pope campaign, and how he had been so long misjudged. He invited the President to carefully peruse the records, as Grant had recently done. Porter will return in a few days and press the bill restoring him to his former rank.

Killed in a Tunnel.

Baltimore, Md., February 13.

Five track men were killed in a tunnel of the Baltimore & Potomac Railroad, near the Union depot, near this city, by a locomotive from the Western Maryland road. The men stepped from one track to get out of the way of a passing train, and walked directly in front of the locomotive on the opposite track.

It Cannot Be.

New York, February 13.

A Cleveland yorner seeks verification that Mrs. Garfield has written to the President asking him to commute the sentence of Gillette. The Herald will say to-morrow: "We have the best of authority for stating that there is not one word of truth in the story."

Paving the Way.

Washington, February 13.

Senator Logan, to-day, moved to recommend to the Military Committee a bill for the relief of Simpson Golish. The bill is regarded as a sort of pilot to the Fitz John Porter case, as the particulars of the case are similar.

An Oil Fire.

New York, February 13.

A special from Olean says, concerning the oil fires in that region, that the fourth tank caught this morning. Thus far 130,000 barrels, valued at $100,000 have been burned, and it is feared the fire will spread.

Star Route Contracts.

Washington, February 13.

The Postoffice department has awarded contracts for Star Route mail service for the ensuing term of four years in the State of California, as follows: Route from Redding to Roseburg, to O. J. Salisbury for $48,200 per annum; Redding to Bieber, O. J. Salisbury, at $9,770 per annum; Tahoe via Tallie to Tahoe, to W. W. Lapham, $3,600; Yreka to Linkville, P. F. Thomas, $81; Nevada City to Graniteville, Daniel Wellington, $2,000; and fifty other routes.

Resting on Execution.

New York, February 13.

The citizens of Greenville, Steuben county, having resisted the sale of the town property levied on under a judgment for interest on town bonds issued in aid of a railroad never built, the Governor has issued a proclamation declaring Greenville a state of insurrection, and warning the people to desist from their opposition to execute a lawful process.

A Stagnant Market.

New York, February 13.

The past week has been remarkable for irregular markets, accompanied with radical fluctuations in prices in most all sorts of merchandise in which speculation forms the controlling elements.

New York, February 13.

Advices from Lima, dated January 25, confirm the report that the treaty of peace has been signed between Bolivia and Peru. By its terms Bolivia is left without a seaboard.

The Last Voyage.

New York, February 13.

The ship E. B. Carver, from Java, lost her captain and his wife, first mate and three seamen from typhoid malarial fever contracted at Java.

More Foreign Failures.

New York, February 13.

A private dispatch from Paris on Saturday said that failures were occurring in all parts of the country, and the markets would be necessarily depressed for at least sixty days.

Very Important.

Chicago, February 13.

Short ribs, firm.

FOREIGN.

Vienna, February 13.

A small war in Europe. Minor engagements have taken place in Herzegovina since the 9th inst. The insurgents were worsted in every instance. The fight of the 10th, near Tirovno, lasted from daybreak until afternoon. The insurgents fled, leaving 29 dead and carrying away about 40 wounded. The Austrians' loss was five killed and wounded.

London, February 13.

A Vienna dispatch says: "In order not to offend Russia, Austria has entirely abandoned the plan of partial or temporary occupation of Montenegro. Negotiations are, however, proceeding with Prince Nikola for the passage of troops. This has discouraged the insurgents."

A Double Disaster.

London, February 13.

Two explosions have occurred in the Rhonda valley, mine. The first killed two persons, and while an exploring party were descending, a second explosion occurred, shattering the shaft and killing four persons.

Sent Him to Nevada.

London, February 13.

The King of Burmah has abolished monopolies and appointed an embassy with a view of re-establishing relations with India.

WESTERN.

San Francisco, February 13.

The Merchants' Exchange held its first call to-day. There was a large attendance but no sales were effected. Evidently sufficient closeness of grading different grades had not been adopted to enable them to know what they were doing. In miscellaneous stocks there were a number of bids, but all below the market rates, and no sellers appeared. The general impression seemed to be that the call was rather farcical, though some present argued that with a little time and more attention to details, the movement would become a success.

Dandy Jim Bush's Go.

Tucson, A. T., February 13.

A special from Wilcox says: Dandy Jim, one of the Indians under sentence of death at Fort Grant, made an attempt to escape yesterday morning and was shot by a guard and seriously wounded.
